Foreword

The years of 1961 and 1962 were troubled ones. Often our minds were made uneasy by thoughts of war and nuclear explosions. Because men could not or would not agree, the whole world seemed to hide behind an explosive truce which might shatter into bits at any moment scattering chaos and destruction throughout the nations.

For the Christian, however, these two years presented a never-paralleled opportunity for witness and service for Christ. While the frightened world built fallout shelters, we serenely faced the future secure in the knowledge that with the Psalmist we could put our trust in the shadow of His wings.

And so the yearbook staff chose to highlight the 1962 BEACON with a shadow, the protecting shadow of the love of God.

> "Yea, in the SHADOW OF THY WINGS will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast."

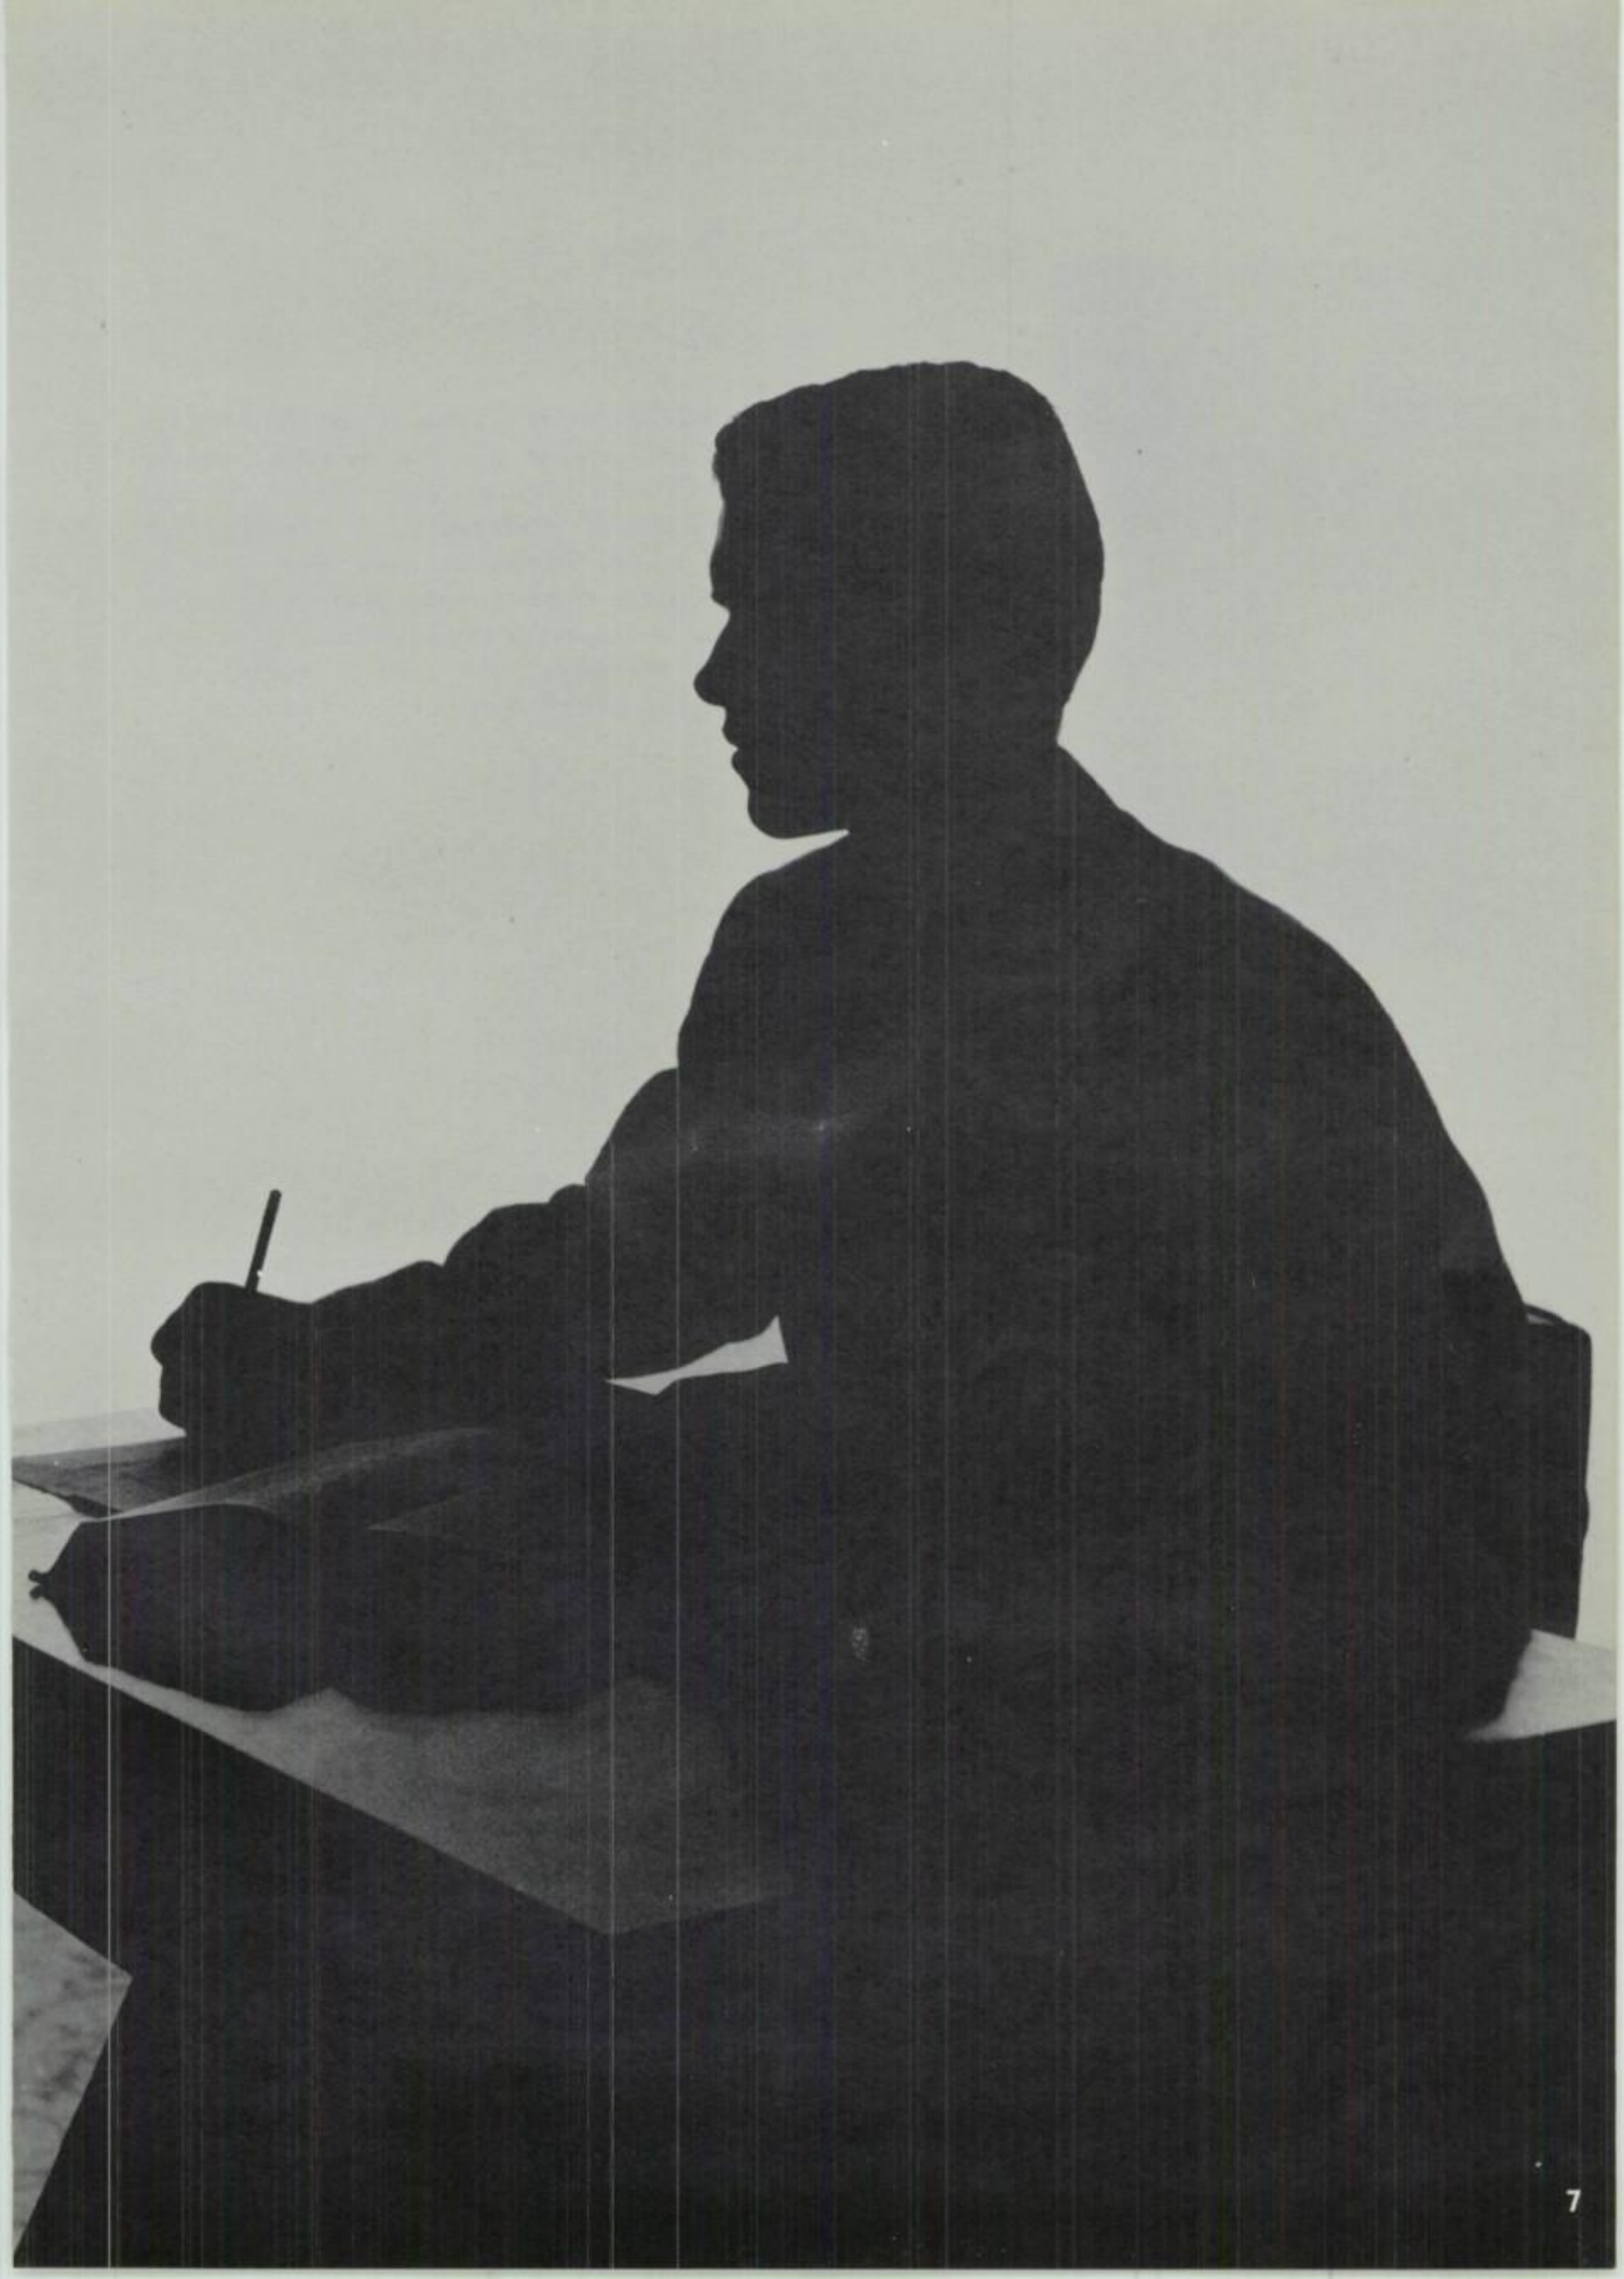
Administration



Superintendent

HOWARD J. KROBER

Mr. Howard J. Krober deserves a pat on the back for the fine job he has done this year as acting superintendent for Phoenix Christian High School. He has taken a great interest in the social and educational aspects of the school. During the past three years, he has served as public relations representative and teacher. This year he assumed the responsibilities of superintendent. God has surely been good in sending us a fine Christian man like Mr. Krober.

The Superintendent's office is one of the busiest offices on the school campus.

Here at Phoenix Christian High School, we are indeed fortunate to have a fine group of men as our Board of Directors. They not only take a keen interest in the academic, spiritual, and social interests of the students, but they share the burdens and responsibilities in maintaining the fine administration of the school.

The members of the Board represent many professional and vocational areas as well as many different churches from all over the valley.

Student Body Officers

In any organization whether large or small there must be leaders who are willing to take the responsibility of serving the group. At P.C.H.S. being elected to a student body office is one of the greatest honors that can come to a person. This year our officers, Lynn Ragsdale, President; Doug Meyers, Vice-President; and Sharon Miller, Secretary, have done an excellent job in leading not only the Student Council, but also the students in many activities. Our sincere thanks go to these who have been "Abiding Under the Shadow of the Almighty" in service to the school and to our Lord.

Under the direction of its sponsor, Mr. Holmes, the Student Council is constantly endeavoring to improve the school in all aspects of its academic, social, and spiritual life. The Council is made up of three student body officers, a boy and girl representative from each class, and the class presidents. It meets once a month to decide important issues concerning student government.

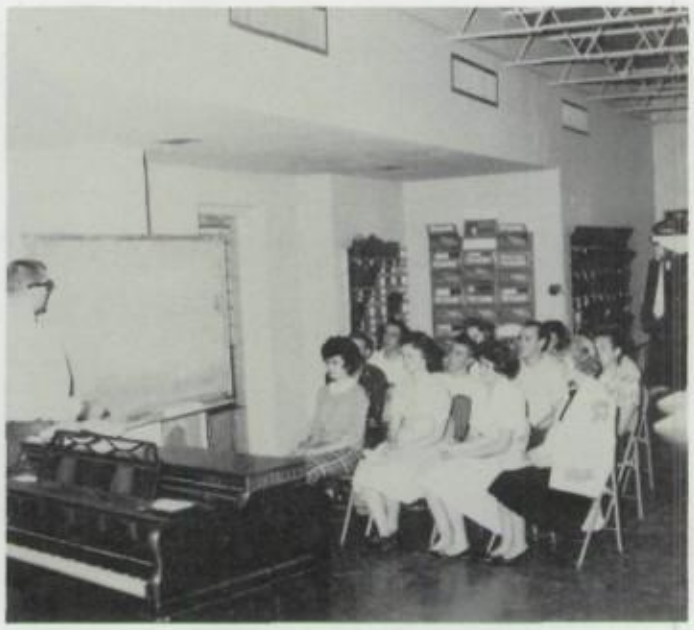
On the Academic Side

While most of the classroom time is spent in study, there is still time for fun.

Ready-O, let's go!

That takes brains?



My, that's interesting, Mr. Walker.

So—So—So!

Look out! Chemistry class at work again!

Is that so, Lester?

Stick 'em up, boys!

We the Beacon staff have spent a hard year of work on the book that you now hold in your hands. We have done our utmost to present to you a book that Phoenix Christian High School can be proud of. Each member of this staff has grown in the Lord this year and has come to a richer realization that we as Christians truly do "abide in the shadow of the Almighty." Our sincere hope is not only that this year's Beacon will serve as a memoir of this year's events but will also bring you closer to the full meaning of a life that will "abide in the shadow of the Almighty."

Ad Staff

Producing a yearbook is a big job requiring the time and help of many people. The Yearbook Staff worked hard all year on the actual pages, but the Ad Staff, too, deserves a share in the glory because this book would not have been possible without the sale of ads. These students have been a real testimony as they have gone to the different businesses of the community as representatives of not only the Beacon and the school but also the Lord.

Cougar Hi-Lites

About every two weeks during the school year, our student body eagerly waited for something. Then, when seventh hour arrived, so did the Cougar Hi-Lites, our school newspaper. Here the students could enjoy reading about themselves, their classmates, and special events or people. This year's newspaper staff has done a fine job under the direction of Editor Beth Pennington.

The National Honor Society is composed of students who are outstanding in the areas of leadership, scholarship, service, and character. They must also maintain a "2" or better grade average every six weeks. Since membership is on a national level rather than a local level, it is considered a privilege and an honor to be a member.

Lettermen's Club

Lettermen's initiation

Being in the Lettermen's Club at Christian High is one of the highest honors a boy interested in athletics can achieve. To become a letterman, the athlete must accomplish the requirements of the particular sport in which he has participated. One of the club's major aims is to interest the students in attending the many athletic activitjes. A highlight of becoming a letterman is the initiation. If he survives the various initiation activities, then he can be proud to say that he is a letterman at Phoenix Christian High School.

HEAD CHEERLEADER
Peggy Owens

Who were the girls always backing our varsity fellows all the way? Which girls were always jumping and bouncing around at games? Who were the girls who did the most yelling and usually lost their voices? The P.C.H.S. Varsity cheerleaders, of course, were the responsible ones. Besides cheering at games, they boosted the school spirit and enthusiasm during the week, directed pep assemblies, and taught the student body new cheers. Yes, "PEP, PEP, you gotta have PEP!"

J.V. Cheerleaders

If you had come to a J.V. basketball game during the 1962 season, you would have seen five lively girls dressed in grey kilts, green vests, white blouses, and knee socks. During the year they have accomplished many things as J.V. Cheerleaders. Participating in pep assemblies and helping to promote school spirit heads this list. Yes, these bouncing and shining personalities have contributed much to the campus of P.C.H.S. So a theme is carried out well "We're from Christian High, and couldn't be any prouder!"

Music

Music Faculty

We at P.C.H.S. are proud of the wonderful job the music department has done this year in witnessing for Jesus Christ. The students in this department have shown their awareness of the overshadowing presence of God in every life situation and opportunity for service.

Mr. Tom Walker directed the Choral Club and the Boys' Chorus. In addition, he taught the music appreciation and general music courses. Mr. Walker, in his second year at P.C.H.S., has been helpful in starting a number of new instrumental ensembles, as well as directing the work of the entire music department.

Mr. Ron Patty has proved himself to be a valuable member of the faculty in his first year at P.C.H.S. He directed the band which marched in the annual Phoenix Rodeo Parade. Also under his direction was the A Cappella Choir which presented many vesper and television programs throughout the year. Mr. Patty assisted Mr. Walker with the ensembles.

A Cappella Choir

"Life is a Symphony" has been a familiar tune sung by Christian High's A Cappella Choir. Many other pieces of music are familiar to this group, but this one song has been special. On several television programs this song has represented their theme for this year. This outstanding vocal group has represented Christian High on many occasions in the city of Phoenix and surrounding areas. Other programs presented by this choir have been the vesper services, the operetta, the spring concert, and school chapel services. Yes, the A Cappella Choir has certainly sung praises to our Lord.

Tulip Time

The A Cappella Choir presented a two act operetta called Tulip Time. It was a story of a group of American college students with their professor who came to Holland to study botany. But Professor McSpindle is accused of being a tulip thief, and Ned and Dick are more interested in the Dutch girls than flowers. With the assistance of Christina's Aunt Anna, the innocence of McSpindle is established, and the latter declares his affection for her. As the curtain fell, there was a prospect of a triple wedding.

Night of Suspense

Night of Suspense was a baffling, absolutely hilarious story about what happened to a group of teenagers on a vacation in the mountains. They get into the wrong house and run into a mystery as wild as anything you'll ever see on TV.

"And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him."

Colossians 3:16

Activities

Stan Dykman and Peggy Owens accept their crowns from Phil Smith and Margie Wright, last year's Homecoming King and Queen.

Homecoming

Of all the exciting and memorable events during the school year, Homecoming ranks as one of the highest. No school year would be complete without it.

Each class started working weeks in advance to make this an unforgettable night of nights. The Seniors may proudly take credit for making the float, beautifully decorated in royal purple and white, which sets the stage for the royal family. The Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors also take part by making decorations which add to the festive atmosphere.

As the long-awaited evening arrives, we feel excitement in the air. At the end of the first half, the royal court makes its way onto the field. Riding on the float are the freshman attendants, Janet Smiser and George Ross; the sophomore attendants, Melba Moore and Ricky Bartels; and the junior attendants, Betty Medaris and Jack Hafer. The two senior couples follow in new convertibles as at last the winners are announced. The senior attendants are introduced as Lindy Lovett and Lynn Ragsdale.

Now all attention is focused on the remaining couple as handsome Stan Dykman and lovely Peggy Owens are presented as this year's Homecoming King and Queen. Margie Wright, last year's queen, presents her crown to Peggy as Stan accepts his crown from last year's king, Phil Smith. The crowd of excited spectators gives the royal couple warm applause as they leave the field.

To highlight an already grand evening, the royal family reigns over "Stairway to the Stars," a party given in their honor after the game. To be sure, the 1961 Homecoming is a successful one.

Chapels have been a special part of the school life of the students at Christian High. The chapels have truly been a time of inspiration to each young person. Special speakers have been visiting missionaries, local pastors, evangelists, and student participants.

Valedictorian

Judy Conaway, Valedictorian

Judy Conaway has made an outstanding record in her four years at Christian High. She has been very active in many areas especially in music. Her freshman year she sang in the glee club; the next three years Judy blended her voice in the A Cappella Choir, and in her senior year she received the honor of being a part of the girls' trio. Aside from this, she has been an officer in the Spanish Club, and a member of the pep club. Judy has been active in the T.F.Y. club where she was an officer and a part of the quiz team. This year in addition to her other activities, she has written stories for the newspaper and helped in biology as a lab assistant. Judy was part of the stage crew for the last two class plays, and, as is to be expected from the Valedictorian, she is a member of the National Honor Society.

Make a note of that!

Salutatorian

Bill Retts, Salutatorian

Although Bill Retts attended Christian High only one year, he did more in that one year than some do in four years. During his first three years he was on the swimming team and in the math and science clubs. Bill was active, of course, in the National Honor Society. He was a member of the varsity baseball and basketball teams. He sang in the A Cappella Choir and played the part of a botany professor in the operetta. Bill was elected to be the senior class Boy Representative to the student council where he was a great asset.

Much study pays off!

Coaches

LES FINGER

Coaching varsity football, varsity track, and freshman basketball, Les Finger has been a great attribute to the athletic as well as spiritual life of the boys participating in these sports. He is considered by everyone at P.C.H.S. a man of Christian testimony, character, and great ability in working with sports and the young men of our school. Most certainly he is appreciated by all.

WAYNE KINDALL

Although this is only his second year at P.C.H.S., Wayne Kindall has been a great asset to our athletic staff. As a college graduate who participated regularly in sports, he has become both coach and friend to the members of his teams. This year he has shouldered the responsibilities of varsity basketball, varsity baseball, and junior varsity football. Besides this, he has been assistant coach for varsity football. During his short time at Christian High, Coach Kindall has become a favorite with all and has helped to establish our Christian testimony on the athletic field.

TOM JOHNSON

A person who has given much to those boys who could not take part in varsity activities is Tom Johnson. Under his direction and instruction, the freshman football team placed third in the conference and set a new record for P.C.H.S. Also, he coached junior varsity basketball and baseball. In all of these sports, Coach Johnson and his teams have upheld the shining light of Christian High.

The Cougar team received more injuries this year than in all other years of football combined, and this fact made everyone on the team try much harder. Team spirit was high all season and although only two games were won, the season was felt to be a real success.

These are the fellows who have carried the load for the Cougars this year. The defensive unit toughened up toward the end of the year and yielded only 12 points to fourth-ranked Kofa, all in the final quarter. Then a week later they held Miami scoreless for the first time since 1958. Team spirit almost doubled when Stan Dykman was permitted to join the squad and after only half a season, earned All-State honorable mention and All-Conference second team honors as an end. Bill Gumm was voted most valuable player and won All-Conference honors as a guard. The Cougars are already eager for next year's season to start.

Retts, Mason, Owenby, and Staggs receive instructions from Coach Kindall during time-out.

Building a basketball team with only two lettermen is not a very easy task, but Coach Wayne Kindall has done a pretty fine job. This year's squad had only three seniors coupled with five juniors and two sophomores who have now gained much needed experience for next year. The team was greatly hurt by the loss of Bob Thomas whose life and personality had meant a great deal to each one of them.
